Spiritual Warfare:

A battle already won

* There is a war ongoing for the hearts of all people, but for Christians the battle has already been won. This course will give a biblical understanding of the unseen spiritual reality where all believers in Christ live. Learn the steps for victorious living in this realm where our enemy also operates.

September 28-October 1, 6 to 9 p.m.

(Dinner provided from 5 to 6 p.m.)

Mokahum Ministry Center

15866 Roosevelt Rd SE , Cass Lake, MN 56633

Robert Decorah is an Assiniboine, Ho Chunk, and Oneida minister who was a pastor for 30 years and now serves with Three Feathers Ministry and Native Ministries International. He graduated from Moody Bible Institute and earned a master's of divinity from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He and his wife, Pam, live in Florida.

Mokahum Ministry Center is an outreach of Oak Hills Center for Indian Ministries in Bemidji, Minnesota. Our mission is to build the church among Native American people.
